

Lopez de Haro Blanco Reserva

The Producer

Vintae has its origin in the passion for wine of José Miguel Arambarri Terrero, a businessman from La Rioja who in 1999 decided to return to family origins, recovering the Small Grain Muscat in La Rioja which had disappeared due to phylloxera. His vision of him gave rise to Castillo de Maetierra and Maetierra Dominum, the two wineries that were the origin of Vintae and where we began to elaborate Libalis. With the incorporation of his two sons, Richi and José Miguel, Vintae became what it is today.

Tasting Notes

Its enveloping acidity stands out throughout its journey. With a linear passage and an eternal finish, it is a faithful example of the mythical fine wines of Rioja. Austere on the palate, but with great elegance, it is a wine that makes you salivate constantly, generating a silky and pleasant dimension. It leaves with hints of aniseed and a touch of minerality in recognition of the complexity of a classic.
