GENERAL INFORMATION

The Syrah Frizzante Alcohol-Free from Aldea is a sparkling delight crafted from carefully selected Syrah grapes grown in sun-kissed vineyards. Cultivated with great care to preserve the grape's natural character, the fruit is harvested at peak ripeness to ensure freshness and a vibrant fruity profile. After gentle pressing, a controlled fermentation process allows the production of an alcohol-free variant that retains the aromas. The wine is then aged in modern tanks, where it develops its fine bubbles before bottling.

In the glass, it shines with a delicate, bright pink hue that immediately captures attention and promises a refreshing experience. Its bouquet is lively and inviting, releasing aromas of fresh strawberries, raspberries, and hints of red currant, delicately interwoven with subtle floral undertones. On the palate, this sparkling rosé is light and graceful, offering a fine effervescence that enhances its fruity character. The balance between gentle sweetness and crisp acidity creates a vibrant, refreshing finish. Elegant and full of charm, the Aldea Frizzante Rosé is a delightful choice for those seeking a refined, alcohol-free sparkling wine that delivers both freshness and pure enjoyment in every sip.

TASTING NOTES

The nose is fresh and expressive, filled with aromas of ripe strawberries, raspberries, and a hint of red currant, complemented by delicate floral notes. On the palate, it is light, fruity, and beautifully balanced, with gentle sweetness and lively acidity creating a refreshing, vibrant character. The smooth texture and refined bubbles enhance its bright red fruit flavors, leading to a crisp, delightful finish. Perfect as an aperitif, it also pairs wonderfully with fruit salads, grilled seafood, Asian dishes, or sweet pastries—an elegant and versatile alcohol-free sparkling wine for any occasion.
