GENERAL INFORMATION

Jaime I is a distinguished Spanish brandy crafted by Familia Torres, reflecting the family's centuries-long dedication to winemaking in the Penedès region. Named in homage to the creative spirit of Catalan Modernism, as exemplified by Gaudí, Jaime I is traditionally distilled in copper stills and aged extensively in premium American oak barrels. This careful solera aging imbues the brandy with sophisticated woody nuances, sweet spices, and a remarkable elegance that defines the best Spanish solera brandies.

TASTING NOTES

Jaime I exhibits a deep amber color with warm golden highlights. The nose is aromatic and expressive, with aromas of toasted oak, vanilla, dried fruits, and subtle spices. On the palate, it is full-bodied, smooth, and velvety, with a harmonious balance of rich caramel, nutty notes, and delicate sweetness. The finish is long, refined, and lingering, showcasing the complexity and craftsmanship of this noble Spanish brandy. Ideal for sipping neat at room temperature or for creating refined, elegant cocktails.
