GENERAL INFORMATION

Ponche Caballero is a genuine Spanish liqueur with a heritage of over 185 years, crafted in El Puerto de Santa María, Cádiz. Made from a secret recipe combining botanicals sourced from around the world, it has become an iconic Spanish spirit, celebrated for its unique aroma and versatile character. Ideal for enjoying neat, over ice, or as a base in sophisticated cocktails, Ponche Caballero is perfect for both sobremesas and evening gatherings.

TASTING NOTES

On the palate, Ponche Caballero shows a glossy amber hue and a sweet, inviting aroma of orange and vanilla, with subtle hints of spice and almond. The flavor is rich, intense, and pleasantly smooth, with a long finish that enhances its appeal. Its sweetness and complexity make it enjoyable on its own or in combination with soft drinks, adding depth to classic and contemporary cocktails alike.
