GENERAL INFORMATION

Pazo de Rubianes is a meticulously crafted Albariño from the DO Rías Baixas, produced in the O Salnés subregion. The grapes are sourced from the trellises in the upper part of the Pazo estate, hand-picked and sorted into 15 kg crates, and processed in the winery within three hours of harvesting to preserve freshness and quality. After cold maceration, fermentation occurs in stainless steel tanks at controlled temperatures, followed by aging on lees with regular bâtonnage, cold stabilization, and bottling. This careful production ensures a wine with excellent structure and the ability to evolve beautifully in the bottle. Pazo de Rubianes has been widely acclaimed, earning the Acio de Ouro 2021, Acio de Prata 2022, and 94 points at the Decanter World Wine Awards 2022, highlighting it as one of the finest Albariños in the world.

TASTING NOTES

The wine presents a brilliant straw-yellow colour with golden highlights. On the nose, it is aromatic and expressive, with delicate hints of white flowers and a progression from pome fruits to stone fruits, reflecting optimal ripeness. The palate is fresh, balanced, and elegant, with a complex structure that showcases the typicity of Albariño. Its long, lingering finish combines finesse and vibrancy, making it a captivating wine for both immediate enjoyment and cellaring. Perfectly served at 8–9°C, it is a true pleasure for lovers of premium white wines.
